

Baja Christian Ministries Prayer Letter 2/14/04

Dear Prayer Partner,

We are getting off to an exciting start this year in ministry. Many groups are scheduling to take the gospel to the poor and to build badly needed homes for poor families. Please lift the following requests in prayer:

- 1) Pastors Tim Nellis and Matt Doan of the Calvary Church, Santa Ana have a team building a house and two latrines along with different forms of evangelism and outreach this weekend 2/14-15. Please pray that many would be reached through Christ's Love and many saved and encouraged. Pray that the group would be blessed, protected and filled with the joy of the Lord. Pray that Hector Rubio would be blessed and refreshed as well.
- 2) Pray for Cheryl Walker as she gets some badly needed R & R in this time of vacation. Also please pray for her daughter Jenny who was hurt in an auto accident and is recovering. Please pray for a speedy recovery and that she will be able to get back to her job soon.
- 3) Rob and Caroline Covell are leading a team from Flipside Church in Alta Loma to do house to house evangelism and food distribution on Saturday Feb 21st. Pray that many would come into saving knowledge of our Lord to be saved.
- 4) Pastor Ian Stevenson from the Crossing Church of Costa Mesa, CA is leading a large team to Mexico on Feb 27-29 to build the inner section and phase of the El Nino Church (a big project) and also helping to finish Pastor Chuy's home. They are also building a police dept from two of our houses to give police support to these communities and also 3 other houses and possibly some latrines. Please pray for God's powerful blessing and wise guidance in this as He empowers and guides. That same weekend The Crossing Church has purchased three thousand tickets to Mel Gibson's new movie the Passion of Christ to help reach many for Christ when it opens in theaters. Please pray for this church that has many fruitful plans and Kingdom blessing's to bring on this very busy weekend.
- 5) On that same weekend 2/27-29 Ray and Jeannie Fecteau and Pasquale and Danelle Russo are bringing employees from their company to build a house. Please pray God's rich blessing and fullness of joy on this group.

We have many minstry groups scheduled for this spring and many new groups to this ministry getting involved. God is so wonderful! He is so good to us! We love Him so! I've enclosed two short poetic prayers I wrote this morning I wanted to share with you, one entitled, "Feasting on the Abundance of Your House" and the other, "Because He Loves Me" I hope they will be an encouragement to your walk with the Lord and serve as encouragement of His great love for us! God bless you! Thanks for your Precious Prayers! With Gratitude, Bob Sanders—Devotional Poems follow-->

Feasting on the Abundance of Your House

(Derived from Psalm 36:7-10 and 1Jo 2:27)

Almighty God, Dear Father Above
How Priceless is Your Unfailing Love
Jesus Christ, Majestic King of All Kings
You are Everything!
Sweet Holy Spirit Anointing that teaches us all things
My heart sings
I find refuge in the Shadow of Your Wings
And though I am least...
--I continually feast--
Because of Your Generosity
...On the Abundance of Your House...
Refreshing Eternal Fountain of Life
You give me drink from Your River of Delights
Glorious Infinite Brilliance that shines ever so bright
It's in Your Light that I see Light
Continue Your Love to all who know You
Your Righteousness to all whose hearts are true
Almighty God our eyes are upon You!

Because You Love me

(Derived from Psalm 91:14-16)

Jesus my Lord, My Greatest Reward
Because I love You--
You Rescue me
Because I acknowledge Your Name
Your Shield me in Your Spirit of Liberty
And Guard me from shame
You faithfully protect me
And set me free
When I call, You answer me
When I'm in trouble, You intervene for me
You deliver me and honor me
And show me Your salvation
I come to You on bended knee
To offer grateful veneration and adoration
Because You love me!
